Allen West: People who disagree with me (like Pres. Obama) should "get the hell out of the USA"

Deport the democrats!

Congressman Allen West doesn't like anyone who disagrees with him and his politics. He doesn't even want them in the country. This past weekend, he said that President Obama, Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid, House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi and Democratic National Committee Chair Debbie Wasserman Schultz should "get the hell out of the United States of America":

“ West gave a 10 minute speech at the Lincoln Day Dinner, telling a very approving audience that, "We need to let President Obama, Harry Reid, Nancy Pelosi and my dear friend the chairman of the Democratic National Committee (Debbie Wasserman Schultz), let them know Florida ain't on the table."

West then told his rivals to, "Take your message of economic dependency, take your message of enslaving the entrepreneurial will and spirit of the American people somewhere else. You can take it to Europe, you can take it to the bottom of the sea, you can take it the North Pole, but get the hell out of the United States of America."

I grew up during a time when Archie Bunker types told anyone who disagreed with the President of the United States and his policies to "love it or leave it". This is a bizarre twist on that where the popularly-elected President of the United States of America and his colleagues are being told to leave the country because they disagree with a pathetic minority on our path forward.

How the hell do we lose elections to idiots like this???

Meanwhile, the FL GOP is going to make his district disappear, being led by the Romney supporters there.

You got used negro, now prepare to be thrown under the bus
